2024 SSTAR Health Professional Book Award

Nominations are invited for the 2024 SSTAR Health Professional Book Award

The goal of the award is to recognize the best recent book for health professionals that contributes to the understanding and resolution of sexual disorders.

AWARD

The Society for Sex Therapy and Research (SSTAR) has established the Health Professional Book Award to be given to the author(s) or editor(s) of the best works published in English related to the understanding and treatment of sexual disorders: one addressed to the public, and the other to health professionals.

The 2024 Health Professional Book Award will be announced in October of 2023 and will be presented at the 2024 Annual Meeting. This award is given every two years. The award winners (including multiple authors or each of the editors of an edited book where there is more than one editor) will each be given a plaque and their names will be listed on the SSTAR Website and the membership listserv. There will be no monetary award.

ELIGIBILITY

3. Book must have been published in the years 2020, 2021, 2022. It may have multiple authors or be an edited work. Previously submitted books are eligible.
